Cherokee High School is a good place to go to, it has many opportunities to teach you things you need to learn in life while also giving you your normal academics. They offer a variety of clubs, sports, academic help, and have great teachers. The only thing I would change is some of the teachers approaches to their students when they teach. Some teachers are more elated to teach while others, show that they don't care as much.

I had a wonderful experience at Cherokee High School. The teachers truly cared about me and were always supportive, making every class engaging and personal. The faculty was welcoming and helpful, creating a positive environment. Most students were respectful and friendly, making it easy to feel comfortable. Overall, I highly recommend Cherokee High School for its caring teachers, friendly staff, and great school community.

You can do good in this school depending on how open you are about your learning and if you choose to take it serious.

It is what you make it. Many honors and AP classes. The diversity enhances the high school experience.

The best experience I have had in high school has been the friends I have made along the way and the teachers that have been there for me even when I was struggling. They help pick me back up. There are some cons about high school like the stupid drama and homework you get but with that being a con it also becomes a pro. With the cons they make you ready for life outside high school. The drama you face will help you realize the importance of who your real friends are and who is not. Also the homework help you get the idea of what collage is going to be like. Overall if would change something it would be that telling the next generation that high school is important and it will go by fast and take every advantage you get!
