

Essential Advisors

We don't sell oils or products. We offer a flat fee $199 personal consultation to help you personalize your essential oils routine. Additional coaching and guidance by request.

Therapeutic Grade oils that are used to help improve mood as well as your health and overall well being. They can be used via a room diffuser, applied topically,, and some can be ingested.

Caution and education are the key to success with essential oils. Getting started with essential oils can be confusing though. Having no education or understanding about what to expect can be intimidating.

By enlisting our flat-fee consultants you can be sure that our advice is unbiased as we do not represent or sell and of the products we suggest.
